Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Respond to Amendment

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Quotations of U.S. Code Title 35

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. Claims 1-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,694,482 ("Arellano").

Regarding claims 1, 8 and 15

Arellano teaches posting a document comprising:

- (a) gathering frequently used delivery instructions for a particular user (col. 9 lines 13-18, "A sensor is used to capture ... at their respective sources");
- (b) associating the frequently used delivery instructions with the particular user (col. 9 lines 1-5, "In effect, the user modelling ... the resulting user data");
- (c) launching an interactive delivery interface (col. 10 lines 44-49, "Concrete presentations are either ... that appear on the display");
- (d) identifying the particular user (col. 9 lines 26-31, "A user's preference and taste ... provide the interaction data");
- (e) presenting, for selection, the frequently used delivery instructions associated with the particular user (col. 9 line 64 to col. 10 line 3, "The process of selecting ... the memory based learning scheme"); and,
- (f) posting the document according to selected frequently used delivery instructions (col. "").

Regarding claims 2 and 9

Arellano teaches gathering frequently used delivery instructions for the particular user includes iteratively gathering frequently used delivery instructions for the particular user (col. 9 lines 19-21, "A sensor knows how often ... into user profile data").

Regarding claims 3, 10 and 16

Art Unit: 2121

Arellano teaches presenting the frequently used delivery instructions includes displaying favorite delivery instructions (col. 9 lines 26-31, “A user’s preference and taste … provide the interaction data”).

Regarding claims 4, 11 and 17

Arellano teaches presenting the frequently used delivery instructions includes displaying a list of frequently used delivery instructions (col. 8 lines 12-19, “The applications framework … presentations of complex applications”).

Regarding claims 5, 12 and 18

Arellano teaches the delivery instructions include destinations (col. 10 lines 62-67, “Style context are rules … browser, modem speed, etc.” [one of the destinations is to delivery a personalized TV program schedule presentation]).

Regarding claims 6, 13 and 19

Arellano teaches the delivery instructions include delivery systems and methods (col. 38, claim 1 is a method and col. 40 claim 8 is a system).

Regarding claims 7, 14 and 20

Arellano teaches the delivery instructions include delivery method and system specific options (col. 38, claim 1 is specific options of a method and col. 40 claim 8 is specific options of a system).
